The Anand Marg, founded in India by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, is self-described as a religious, social organization whose goal is peaceful, social reform. Sarkar, who is known to his devotees as Anadmurti (Bliss Incarnate) and Baba (father), was imprisoned in India after being found guilty of conspiring in the murders of six former followers who had defected from Anand Marg. The Anand Marg and its splinter groups, have committed numerous acts of terrorism throughout the world demanding the release of their leader Sarkar, and social revolution in India.

The Anand Marg was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Saba" or Ananda Murthiji, and advocates the overthrow of the Indian government and a takeover by a group called "Sadvippas," an elite section of Anand Marg. The group reportedly had indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution. Sarkar has been imprisoned since 1971 on charges he ordered the murder of several defectors from the Anand Marg. He has since been released in 1978 on bond pending an appeal before the Indian Court.

Sarkar claims to be the incarnation of God and his purpose is to establish a government of moralists. He has succeeded in persuading his followers that he has supernatural powers and can liberate their souls. Once the organization gained some popularity it became involved in politics.

ANAND MARG

Ananda Marg established itself in the United States in 1971 when Acharya Yatishwarananda Avadhoot, alias R. Venkatanarayan, was sent to propagate the group's philosophy. The headquarters were established in Wichita, Kansas, under the name of the Ananda Marga Yoga Society of USA. In 1973 the Society brought its own three-story building at 854 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, and moved its headquarters there.

The Ananda Marga Yoga Society is self-described as a group whose members attempt, through self-discipline, and meditation, to find ecstasy and inner peace. In 1975 the Society claimed to have 80 branches in the U.S. In 1972 and 1973, it engaged in demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California, protesting the jailing of its spiritual leader, Shrii Shrii Anandamurti (Sarkar). These demonstrations were peaceful; however, a demonstration at the Indian Embassy on April 23, 1973, resulted in the arrest of two Society members. They were charged with "Depositing of Trash in a Public Place" after they attempted to deliver to the Indian Ambassador the ashes of a monk who had immolated himself. In the process, the container of ashes was dropped and broke on the Embassy steps.

In late 1976, Sarkar claimed to have eight million followers in India, Great Britain, the United States, Canada, the Philippines, and Australia.

Activity in the United States

On October 20, 1977, a brick and fire bomb were thrown through the window of the Air India office at 400 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

On November 11, 1977, an employee of the Air India Office in Los Angeles, California, was assaulted with a knife by an unidentified female.

On November 25, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Attache, Embassy of India, Washington, D.C., was stabbed.
